Berlin, March 11, N. S.

YESTERDAY arrived here an Officer, preceded by five Poſtilions, with the News of the taking of Glogow. The Particulars he brought in general are ſaid to be, that Prince Leopold of Anhalt, who commands the Troops before that Town, took it by Surprize, having cauſed a general Attack to be made at one and the ſame Time at all the Gates of the Town, at Twelve a-Clock at Night: That the ſaid Gates having been broke down by the Grenadiers with their Axes, the Pruſſians got into the Town before the whole Garriſon could be under Arms, and which in all made only between 7 and 800 Men. In this Action very few Men were killed; on the Side of the Pruſſians, they ſay only 50 killed or wounded. Amongſt the Auſtrians Major General Rasky was dangerouſly wounded.

Whitehall, March 10.

This Day arrived Letters from Sir Chaloner Ogle, dated at St. Chriſtopher's December 28, with an Account, that he arrived there with the Squadron under his Command on the 27th, where he found his Majeſty's Ship the Montagu, and the Princeſs Royal Hoſpital-Ship, and all the Tranſports and Store-Ships that had been ſeparated from him. Sir Chaloner intended to ſail from St. Chriſtopher's for Jamaica on the ſame Day that his Letters were dated.
